Betty Cornish Trophy

We received two entries in each of our competitions. Thanks to the members for entering. The Betty Cornish Trophy was won by John Bodnar for his display on The Studdy Dog a.k.a. Bonzo, both entries were very colourful and interesting to read. Next year we hope to see some more of our members putting a 6 page display up. The Betty Cornish Trophy is all about children and what what they get up too, mainly having fun. Hope to see your display next year

We also received two entries in The Empire Trophy, the winner was Ron Ritter with his entry on The Semaphore Jetty.

The Empire Trophy was donated by Arthur Bergen as an eight page entry based on postcards of the British Empire, whether past or present. Again the trophy is about encouraging our members to participate in the competition. We hope to see more entries next year.
